18 Question a. Man : Could you please read the next sentence?
Woman : Sorry. I wasn't paying attention. Which sentence is that?
Man : The line that starts with the name of the boy.
Woman : I see.
Question : Which sentence is the woman going to read?

19 Question b. Man : I wonder if I turned off the heater when I left home.
Woman : I'm sure you did. You always say that when we go out.
Man : Well, I tend to forget the things I do every day.
Woman : We can go back and check it if you are worried.
Question : Why does the man forget about turning off the heater?

20 Question c. Woman : I am going on holiday to Paris, but I must find someone to feed my birds while I am away.
Man : How about your nephew, Sammy? He seems like a good boy.
Woman : No, I don't trust Sammy because he forgot to water my plants last summer.
Man : Oh, I see. In that case, I can feed the birds if you like.
Question : Does the woman want Sammy to feed her birds?

21 Question d. Man : There are many languages in the world, but some of them are disappearing.
Woman : Why do languages disappear?
Man : One reason is that more and more people are using official languages instead of their own.
Woman : We are losing something important as the world is becoming international.
Question : What do we lose as the world becomes more international?

22 Question e. Man : An English accent is very hard to master, isn't it?
Woman : My friend Kyoko is quite good at it. She must have been abroad for quite some time.
Man : Living in a foreign country doesn't always make you a good speaker of a foreign language.
Woman : That's true. You have to try very hard every day.
Question : Why do they think living in a foreign country is not enough to master a foreign language?

24 読み終わりましたか。これから英文が2回くり返して読まれます。その内容と一致するものを①～④の中から1つずつ選びなさい。

それでは英文を読みます。

25/26

All around the world, people drink tea. But in different countries people have very different ideas about drinking tea.

In China, for example, tea is always served when people get together. The Chinese drink it at any time of day, at home or in tea houses. They prefer their tea plain, with nothing else in it.

Tea is also important in Japan. The Japanese have a special way of serving tea called a tea ceremony. It is very old and full of meaning. Everything must be done in a special way in the ceremony. There is even a special room for it in Japanese homes.

Tea-drinking is also common in England. In England the late afternoon is "teatime." Almost everyone has a cup of tea then. The English usually make tea in a teapot and drink it with cream and sugar. They also eat cakes, cookies and little sandwiches at teatime.

In the United States people drink tea mostly for breakfast or after meals. Americans usually use tea bags to make their tea. Using tea bags is faster and easier than making tea in teapots.

28 読み終わりましたか。JohnとAnnaが会話をしています。二人の会話の内容について英語で5つの問いが読まれます。同じ会話と問いがもう1回くり返されます。それぞれの問いに対するもっとも適当な答えを①～④の中から1つずつ選びなさい。それでは会話文を読みます。

29/35

John : Hi, Anna. Are you ready to take the exam tomorrow?

Anna : Yes, I am. I've been studying for it all week. How about you?

John : I've also been studying a lot, but I don't think I'll be ready for it no matter how much I study tonight. Our teacher asks us for too much detailed knowledge on exams, don't you think? I wish I were in Denmark.

Anna : I beg your pardon? What did you say?

John : I said that I wish I were in Denmark.

Anna : Why Denmark?

John : Well, I've just come across an interesting article about high schools in Denmark. It said that students are allowed to use the Internet while taking the final exams.

Anna : Wow, I think it's a good idea since the Internet has become so much a part of daily life. It should be included in the classroom and also in exams. But I'm worried about one thing.

John : What's that?

Anna : Well, I can imagine some students emailing questions to their friends so that they can get the correct answers.

John : Ha-ha. If I were there, I might do that. Of course, they do have a rule that says they cannot send or receive emails while they are taking an exam.

Anna : That makes sense. I really like this idea from Denmark because it's more practical than just memorizing something for an exam.

次に問いの文を読みます。

30/36 Question a. What makes John think he won't be ready for the exam?

31/37 Question b. What kind of news in Denmark are they talking about?

32/38 Question c. Why does Anna think using the Internet is a good idea?

33/39 Question d. What is not allowed in schools in Denmark during the exam?

34/40 Question e. Why does Anna like the idea of using the Internet for the exam?

- 4 Question a. Woman : Do you think this tea cup is the best for my mom's birthday?
Man : Well, I think the biggest one is the best, honestly.
Woman : But I only have ten dollars right now.
Man : That's too bad. You have no choice, then.
Question : Which cup can the woman buy?

- 5 Question b. Man : Hey, I found your textbook in the classroom.
Woman : It's not mine. Whose is it?
Man : Isn't it yours? I found it on the desk in the front row next to the window.
Woman : That's not my desk, I sit at the back.
Question : Where did the man find the textbook?

- 6 Question c. Man : Excuse me. Can I have tickets for two adults and two children?
Woman : How old are your children?
Man : My son is 5 years old, and my daughter is 7.
Woman : Children under 6 are free.
Question : How much will the man have to pay?

- 7 Question d. Man : Your class sold ice cream in the school festival, right?
Woman : Yes, we sold two types of ice cream.
Man : How did it go?
Woman : It seems like chocolate wasn't that popular at the beginning, but in the afternoon, we sold three times as many as we sold vanilla at that time.
Question : How many chocolate ice creams were sold in the afternoon?

- 8 Question e. Woman : This graph shows what percentages of students are in each club in this school.
Man : Almost half of the students belong to either the baseball or the soccer club.
Woman : Yeah, these two are the most popular clubs in this school, but the soccer club has slightly fewer students than the baseball club.
Question : Which is the soccer club?
