- 7 次の英文を読み、a～eの各英文について本文の内容と一致するものを①～④の中から1つずつ選びなさい。

Some days ago, Janet went to a restaurant with her parents and her brother, Tom. When they arrived at the restaurant, they found that they would have to wait for some time. They could give up and try another one, but Tom liked the steak there and they decided to wait. After waiting for 30 minutes or so, they were taken to a table by the waiter. The table was by the window and Janet and her family were happy. Tom was really excited to be able to sit by the window.

By the time they ordered food, they had noticed that three children at the next table were noisy. The boys and their parents were talking in loud voices. Janet was a bit angry with their parents. They didn't tell their children to be quiet. Soon those children got noisier and they started throwing hand towels at one another. But still their parents didn't do anything. People in the restaurant were looking angrily at them.

At first, Janet couldn't see the face of the father of the noisy family because he was seated just behind her. But when Janet saw his face at last, she was surprised. It was the history teacher at her school. He was always complaining about students' bad manners. She tried not to look at his face, but she was not comfortable at all while eating dinner.

The next day, Janet's class had history in the second period. Her classmates were a bit noisy waiting for the history teacher to come in. As soon as the teacher came into the classroom, he began to scold the students saying, "You should be quiet while you are at school or even at a restaurant."

a. Janet's family decided to wait at the restaurant because

- ① they could sit at the table by the window.
- ② Tom liked the steak the restaurant serves.
- ③ they liked waiting.
- ④ the waiter asked them to wait for some time.

b. People in the restaurant were feeling angry

- ① because the parents didn't say anything to the noisy children.
- ② and they told the waiter to do something.
- ③ because the children's father was too strict.
- ④ though they could enjoy the dinner very much.

c. At first Janet couldn't see the face of the father of the noisy family

- because he was seated
- ① beside her.
 - ② behind her.
 - ③ in front of her.
 - ④ behind the wall.

d. After she knew who the father was, she

- ① went to talk to him.
- ② felt happy because she liked him.
- ③ wasn't comfortable eating dinner.
- ④ started to enjoy the dinner.

e. We can guess that the history teacher

- ① knew Janet was at the restaurant.
- ② always considered the feelings of others.
- ③ liked the same steak as his son.
- ④ didn't notice Janet was at the restaurant.
