〔7〕 次の英文を読み、a～eの各英文について本文の内容と一致するものを①～④の中から1つずつ選びなさい。

Mari went shopping with her mother last weekend. When they passed a store, she saw a nice shirt in the show window there. She decided to go inside and have a closer look at the shirt. She liked the design as well as the color very much.

The store clerk said, “We are having a sale now and everything is 20% off for five days.” Mari soon decided to buy the shirt because she thought that was the only chance to buy it at a low price. While she was trying on the shirt, she thought it would go well with dark jeans. She chose a pair of dark jeans and tried them on with the shirt. They were a nice match and she was quite happy to buy them.

On her way back, she saw a young woman on the subway. She noticed that the woman was wearing exactly the same shirt and jeans that Mari had just bought. Mari was a bit shocked and disappointed. After some time, she heard the woman saying to her friend, “How do you like my shirt and jeans? I bought them really cheaply downtown last month. The storekeeper gave me 30% off when I said I also wanted a pair of jeans. I could buy both of them at 30% off the usual price. That was really a good buy. Don’t you think so?”

Mari decides everything very quickly. This time she learned a big lesson. Deciding quickly is not always good. She paid more money than the woman on the train did, but the lesson she learned will be far more valuable.

- a. When Mari first saw the shirt, { ① she liked its design and color.
② she liked its material.
③ she liked its price.
④ she only liked its color.
- b. Mari bought a pair of jeans, because { ① they went well with the shirt.
② the color was her favorite.
③ her mother suggested it.
④ the store clerk liked the shirt and those jeans together.
- c. On the train back, Mari { ① heard a young woman speaking badly of Mari's clothes.
② heard a young woman talking about her mother.
③ noticed a woman wearing the same clothes Mari had just bought.
④ became happier about what she had bought.
- d. The jeans the woman on the train was wearing { ① were bigger than Mari's.
② were cheaper than Mari's.
③ didn't look fine with the shirt.
④ made Mari feel interested in the latest fashion.
- e. This taught Mari { ① she should follow other people's opinions.
② not everybody looks nice in jeans.
③ deciding quickly is not always good.
④ people should not wear the same clothes.
