Satomi is my best friend. I remember very well the first time we met. It was in our first English class at high school, and we were sitting next to each other. But then Ms. Edwards said to us, “Be quiet.” After the class, we found that we liked the same things, especially music and sports, so we spent a lot of time together.

We left school ten years ago, but we have met as often as possible. For the last six months Satomi has been in Australia. Now, she’s working in a school as a Japanese teaching assistant there. She’s coming back to Japan next month, and we’ll have lots of things to talk about. It will be really nice to see her again.
