Every time airplanes land at the airport, a lot of people gather and welcome the visitors. Some of them *¹hug the visitors and some shake hands. They are not there to meet their friends or relatives. They just want to give a warm welcome to unknown visitors to their country. Those friendly people live on the islands of *²Tuvalu, beautiful but sinking islands in the South Pacific Ocean.

Tuvalu is well-known as a disappearing country because of *³global warming. The sea level has been rising because of the melting ice in the *⁴polar areas. The highest spot of the islands is now just four meters high. People sometimes walk along the street with water up to their knees. Some of their living rooms or bedrooms are often flooded. People think that the islands will be under water in the near future.

The government of Tuvalu is sending its people to New Zealand if they are willing to move. But many of them, of course, don't want to leave their country. Thinking of these friendly people who have to give up their beautiful islands, we should stop global warming as soon as possible. There must be something each of us can do for the friendly people of this small country.

- *¹hug : 抱きしめる *²Tuvalu : ツバル (南太平洋にある島国)
*³global warming : 地球温暖化 *⁴polar area : 北 (南) 極の地域

- a. People of Tuvalu come to the airport to
- ① pick up their friends.
 - ② greet unknown people.
 - ③ see the airplanes.
 - ④ find something interesting.
- b. Water from the melting ice

 - ② keeps people awake all night.
 - ③ often floods the islands.
 - ④ sometimes comes up to four meters high.
- c. It is believed that Tuvalu
- ① will sink under the water.
 - ② will be New Zealand.
 - ③ will be covered with ice from polar areas.
 - ④ will be a wonderful place for foreigners to live in.
- d. The government of Tuvalu
- ① forces its people to leave the country.
 - ② gives money to its people to build houses.
 - ③ helps its people to go to another country if they wish.
 - ④ closes the airport because it's dangerous.
- e. We have to
- ① help the government of Tuvalu build new streets.
 - ② stop the people of Tuvalu from going to the airport.
 - ③ do what we can to stop global warming.
 - ④ send people to clean the beaches of Tuvalu.
